About the poll

Latino Decisions interviewed 405 randomly selected Latino registered voters nationwide from November 20 - 22, 2014 and contains a margin of error of +/- 4.9%. Respondents were interviewed by fully bilingual interview staff and given the option to complete the poll in English or Spanish and surveys averaged 10 minutes in length. Sample was drawn from the national L2 database of registered voters and is representative of Latino voters nationally. The survey was designed by Latino Decisions co-founders Matt Barreto and Gary Segura on behalf of Presente.org, NALACC and Mi Familia Vota.
