23. Recently, President Obama has said that he plans to enact an executive order temporarily stopping the deportation of millions of undocumented immigrants who have not committed a crime, and provide them work permits and temporary legal status. Many Democrats in Congress have supported the President and asked to act immediately to provide relief from deportation.

If President Obama enacts this executive order before the end of this year would that make you feel more enthusiastic or less enthusiastic about the Democratic Party?

24. Some Republicans have said that will do everything they can to block President Obama from issuing executive orders on immigration. They argue we should continue deporting undocumented immigrants and focus more on border security.

If Republicans block Obama from taking any action on immigration would that make you feel more enthusiastic or less enthusiastic about the Republican Party?
