Center for American Progress Action Fund / Latino Decisions Immigration Poll / May 2014

Q7. Even though a majority of members in the House of Representatives support reforming our immigration system, Republican John Boehner is debating whether or not to allow a vote on the immigration reform bill this year. If John Boehner, who is in charge of the Congress, does NOT allow the immigration bill to move forward and have a vote, will you feel more favorable to Republicans in Congress or less favorable to Republicans in Congress?

Q7. Even though a majority of members in the House of Representatives support reforming our immigration system, Republican John Boehner is debating whether or not to allow a vote on the immigration reform bill this year. If John Boehner, who is in charge of the Congress, does NOT allow the immigration bill to move forward and have a vote, will you feel more favorable to Republicans in Congress or less favorable to Republicans in Congress?

Q13. After the U.S. Senate passed a comprehensive immigration reform bill, Republican Congressman Paul Ryan said quote "illegals can get some sort of legal status, but not full citizenship." He added "My motivation and the motivation of the Republican Party is we believe in the rule of law, we believe in the need to have better security on our border." How likely are you to consider voting for Republican Paul Ryan for President?
